

GRAND OLD MAN OF MASONRY DIES SUDDENLY

Henry G. Sandifer Found Dead on Banks of Hanging Fork—Native of Lincoln

Every one in this community was greatly shocked Saturday afternoon when Henry G. Sandifer had been found dead on the banks of Hanging Fork, as a result of what was believed to be a heart attack, from which he had been a sufferer for some time. Mr. Sandifer was a native of Lincoln county, and was probably the best known Mason in Kentucky. He was greatly beloved among the Masons here. Only a few weeks ago he came here at the head of the Danville degree team and officiated at the exemplification of the third degree upon Harvey Helm. The editor of the I. J. had the great pleasure of taking the first three chapter degrees under this grand old man only last week, and will ever treasure the memory of his words and his work.

A delegation from Lincoln Lodge went to Danville Saturday night to attend a lodge of arrangements for the funeral, among those who went over being, Dr. T. W. Pennington, Master of the local lodge, George P. Bright, John N. Menefee, Jr., J. N. Saunders.

The Danville Advocate Saturday had this account of the death of Mr. Sandifer:

The whole community was greatly shocked shortly after noon today when the report became current that Mr. H. G. Sandifer, Sr., Cashier of the Boyle Bank & Trust Co., had been found dead on the Hanging Fork near the bridge on the old Lancaster pike. He was found by a colored boy named Harlan. By his side was a bucket of minnows which he had just caught, preparatory to fishing. Apparently he had stopped to take a little rest when he fell forward on his breast, where he expired. The indications are that death came without a struggle.

Mr. Sandifer left his home in Danville this morning about 6:30 o'clock and friends saw him at Hedgeville about 7 o'clock. From there he went directly to the river. He was found shortly before noon. The colored boy did not know who he was and notified the store at Hedgeville, which in turn called Sheriff Fox, who hurried to the river. The sheriff then notified friends and relatives in Danville.

Mr. Sandifer went to the river alone this morning, which was not usual, as his custom was to be accompanied. He had been in fairly good health and had not complained. However, he had suffered slight attacks of heart disease in the past and the supposition is that he was suddenly attacked.

For forty-six years he had been connected with the Boyle National Bank and the Boyle Bank and Trust Co., and for the past fifteen years cashier, having succeeded the late John W. Proctor. He was secretary of the Danville Building and Loan Association and was one of the most prominent Masons in the State of Kentucky. He had served as past Eminent Commander of the Knights Templar of Kentucky and had filled all the offices in the local Masonic lodge and Commandery a number of times and was greatly beloved by the large membership of both orders.

Mr. Sandifer was a leading and useful member of the Methodist church and had always taken a deep interest in all matters pertaining to the moral and commercial uplift of the community.

As an evidence of the deep esteem in which he is regarded by all citizens, the public speaking which was to have been held at the court house this afternoon was immediately cancelled upon the announcement of his death. He was not only one of the best posted Masons in the state but one of the best citizens in every particular. He was about seventy years of age and is survived by his wife and one son, Judge Henry Sandifer, Jr.

Old Crab Orchard Distillery Sold.

(Louisville Herald.)

The old Crab Orchard Distillery, at Crab Orchard, Ky., about forty miles from Louisville, has just been sold to a syndicate of Chicago men. This announcement was made yesterday at the offices of the Fidelity Trust Co., which concern represented the creditors of the former owners. It is understood that the consideration was around $1,500.

The legal end of the transaction was looked after by Attorneys McDermott and Ray. The names of the purchasing parties were not disclosed. It is understood here that the distillery, which covers a large acreage, will be operated again.

The plant has been idle for several years past, but is said to be in excellent condition. It formerly belonged to the Crab Orchard Distillery Co., which wound up its affairs for the benefit of creditors a few months ago.

Ed Walton Goes to Richmond

Ed C. Walton last week purchased an interest in the Richmond Climax and left this morning for the capital of Madison to take charge. Since disposing of the Somerset Times, Mr. Walton has been prospecting among Kentucky newspapers and came to the conclusion that Richmond offered a splendid field. Editor A. D. Miller, of the Climax, has been compelled to get out into the country, on account of his health and with Ed Walton in charge of the plant, the Climax will undoubtedly again take front rank in the list of Kentucky newspapers.

Local Foot Ball Boys Defeat Lancaster—Other School News.

(By James Cooper.)

With the exception of merely a practice game with the town team, the Stanford High School foot ball team played its first game with Lancaster's school team on last Friday, playing on the latter's grounds. It was my pleasure to see the game as a reporter, and I can say that it was one of the cleanest games that was ever witnessed and although it was almost a one-sided affair, yet it was very interesting. Not but three on our team were players last year, and the new material is certainly showing up well.

It was advertised last week that the Danville Preps, were going to play here last Friday, but as they failed to come, as they have frequently done before, hurriedly Mr. Ireland got a game with Lancaster. The game was called at three o'clock, and the line up was as follows, the result of game being in favor of S. H. S. by 47 to 0:

Subs. for Stanford—Davis, Shanks, Wilkinson, Anderson and Brown.

Subs. for Lancaster—Cecil Brown, Joe West and Howard Jenkins.

The game in full follows: In the first quarter Thomas Coleman made the first touchdown, and with Joe Hill kicking the goal made the score 7 to 0 in favor of Stanford. In the second quarter Clinton Coleman made the first touchdown but the goal was missed making the score now 13 to 0.

In the third quarter Silas Anderson and Joe Hill each got a touchdown and the goal kicked each time making the score at the end of the third quarter 27 to 0.

In the 4th quarter Thomas Coleman got two touchdowns, and Joe Hill kicking the goal each time, and Spalding Hill also got a touchdown in the last quarter, but the goal failed to be kicked but making the score 47 to 0. The S. H. S. back field did not get to tackle at all, nor did they have to kick.

The all-around good playing of Will Swope for Lancaster was a feature of the game.

Miss Elizabeth Matheny, '14 was absent several days last week.

One of the most enjoyable chestnut hunts that has ever been given in Stanford was the one Saturday given by the Stanford High School. A crowd of about twenty-five left town at eight thirty, and started toward Junction City. After passing this town we proceeded to travel toward the knobs. We reached our destination just about noon, and after finding a good spring, the girls began to prepare lunch, as each one was very hungry. A very elaborate luncheon was served and it was fully enjoyed by all. Later in the afternoon we all started off to climb the knobs. This part of the day was enjoyed very much by the ones who seldom get to the country. We returned home by the way of Danville that night. All of course were tired but all declared they would remember the 1912 chestnut hunt as a very enjoyable one. The crowd consisted of: Miss Effie Baughman, Mr. Robert Carter; Miss Sallie M. Craig, Mr. Jesse Hocker; Miss Lyle Cooper, Mr. Harry Reinhart; Miss Sallie Burdette, Mr. William Grimes; Miss Mary M. Roney, Mr. Thomas Coleman; Miss Mary E. McKinney, Mr. Joseph Hill, Miss Anna Davis, Mr. Robert Carter, Mr. Clinton Coleman, Miss Elizabeth Holtzclaw, Mr. Sam Embury, Miss Lissa Holtzclaw, Mr. James Cooper, Misses Darnall, Hommel and Eaton, and Mr. Kemper acted as chaperones, and better ones could not have been found.

Miss Gertrude Wilkinson, '15 has been absent for a few days.

A chafing dish party consisting of four couples, was greatly enjoyed at the home of Miss Anna D. McRoberts last Friday night. Welsh rarebit, candy and many other good things were served. The couples were: Miss Mary M. Roney and Mr. Thomas Coleman, Miss Anna D. McRoberts and Mr. Tom Phillips, Miss Mary E. McKinney and Mr. Joseph Hill, Miss Mary S. Cook and Mr. James Cooper.

The Bach Club began work last week with much enthusiasm, having for a subject for their first meeting "The Life of Chopin." The roll call is larger than last year, and the interest manifested by these young people in the study of musical history, and analysis, will be very gratifying to all who are interested in the development of a broader and higher musical interest among our young people. An afternoon devoted to American Music will be given in the Auditorium at an early date.

WORLD CONVENTION

Of Disciples at Louisville Attended By Many Local Christians

Rev. D. M. Walker, pastor of the Stanford Christian church, headed a good sized delegation of Lincoln Christians to the world convention of Disciples of Christ in session in Louisville this week. Among those went from here in addition to the pastor, were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tate, Mrs. John S. Baughman, Miss Pauline Hocker, Mesdames Peonia Brown, Mary Craig, W. P. Grimes, L. B. Cook, W. A. Tribble, J. G. Carpenter, J. C. Eubanks.

An attendance of 30,000 or 40,000 people is expected at the big convention. Attending it will be delegates from every state in the Union, neighboring Canada, distant Australia, Honolulu, Africa, Tibet, Japan and the Isles of the ocean, wherever missionaries of the Christian faith have gone. Louisville this week is the Mecca of Christians.

The convention will be such in extent that Louisville men and others have devoted themselves to its preparation for almost a year. Twenty five committees, composed of the leading churchmen of the faith in the city, have labored for more than seven months in making arrangements for the comfort of the guests and the convenience of the various organizations to be represented.

Held out to the guests are many alluring side trips. Runs will be made to Mammoth Cave, Kentucky's quota of the seven wonders of the world; to Lincoln's birthplace and the memorial hall where the cabin of the martyred President is zealously guarded; to the famous Bluegrass section, and to the little old, Cane Ridge church, where the Christian faith had its beginning in this state.

The convention, as a matter of fact, will be thirteen conventions in one. The various organizations that will be represented are: American Missionary Society, Foreign Christian Woman's Board of Missions, Board of Ministerial Relief, National Board of Christian Evangelists, Board of Church Extension, National Benevolent Association, American Temperance Board, National Board of Christian Endeavor, the Council of Christian Union, Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ, National Bible School Association.

A tribute to the nationalities of the visitors is contained in the musical program. A chorus of 500 voices will sing a number of national anthems. But the first song that will greet the ears of the delegates is "My Old Kentucky Home."

ASSASSIN TRIES TO KILL THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Bull Moose Candidate for President
Slightly Wounded by Bullet
In His Right Shoulder

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 14.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt was shot and wounded tonight as he was leaving the Gilpatrick Hotel for the Auditorium to make a speech. The wound was supposed to be superficial and the Colonel went on to the hall and began his speech after he had seen his assailant arrested and taken to the police station. An examination later showed that the injury was only a slight flesh wound in the right shoulder.

Mr. Martin, Col. Roosevelt's secretary, seized the man and held him until policemen came up. A mob surged around the prisoner, who apparently is mentally upset on the subject of Roosevelt's running for another term as President.

The man, who is small of stature, admitted firing the shot and said that "any man looking for a third term ought to be shot."

In notes found in the man's pocket at the police station were statements that the man had been visited in a dream by the spirit of William McKinley, who had said, indicating Col. Roosevelt, "This is my murderer, avenge my death."

The shooting took place in the street in front of the Hotel Gilpatrick. Col. Roosevelt reached Milwaukee shortly after 5 o'clock, and making his way through the crowd, which had gathered at the station, entered an automobile and was driven to the hotel. He took dinner in a private dining room on the main floor with the members of the party on his private car.

After dinner Col. Roosevelt went to his room on the second floor of the hotel, and shortly before 8 o'clock he started for the Auditorium. His automobile stood in front of the door and about it was a big crowd, waiting to catch a glimpse of the Colonel as he started off.

With the Col. were Philip Roosevelt, a young cousin, Mr. Cochems, Mr. Martin and Capt. Girard.

The crowd pressed close about the Colonel and gave a cheer as he appeared. As the party approached the automobile Col. Roosevelt's companions stood aside and he stepped into the car. Martin entered directly behind him and sat on the farther side of the car.

Col. Roosevelt stood up, waving his hat in answer to the cheers of the crowd. The assassin was standing in the crowd a few feet from the automobile. He pushed his way to the side of the car and raising his gun fired.

Martin caught the flash and leaped over the car a second after the bullet sped on its way.

Col. Roosevelt barely moved as the shot was fired. Before the crowd knew what had happened, Martin, who is six feet tall and a former football player, had landed squarely on the assassin's shoulders and had borne him to the ground. He threw his right arm about the man's neck with a death-like grip and with his left arm seized the hand that held the revolver. In another second he had disarmed him.

Col. Roosevelt stood calmly looking on, as though nothing had happened. Martin picked the man up as though he were a child and carried him a few feet, which separated them from the car, almost to the side of the Colonel.

"Here he is," said Martin, "look at him, Colonel."

All this happened within a few seconds and Col. Roosevelt stood gazing rather curiously at the man who attempted his life before the stunned crowd realized what was going on. Then a howl of rage went up.

"Lynch him! Kill him!" cried a hundred men. The crowd pressed in on them and Martin and Capt. Girard, who had followed Martin over the side of the automobile, were caught with their prisoner in the midst of a struggling throng of madmen. It seemed for the moment that he would be torn to pieces by the infuriated men, and it was Col. Roosevelt himself who intervened on his behalf.

He raised his hand and motioned to the crowd to fall back.

"Stop, stop," he cried; "stand back; don't hurt him."

The men in the crowd at first were not disposed to heed his words, but at length fell back and permitted Martin and Capt. Girard to carry the man into the hotel.

The prisoner told the police after an hour's examination that he was John Schrank, of 370 East Tenth street, New York. He had on his person a copy of the Colonel's itinerary, written on a sheet of note paper taken from the Bismarck Hotel and Cafe, Nashville, Tenn.

The would-be assassin is five-feet five inches in height, weighs 170 pounds, light complexion, bald and fairly well dressed. He confessed to the police that he fired the shot and remarked:

"Any man looking for a third term ought to be shot."

A written proclamation found in the clothing of the man who did the shooting reads:

"September 15, 1912.—September 15 1901, 1:30 a. m., in a dream I saw President McKinley sit up in a monk's attire in whom I recognized Theodore Roosevelt. The President said 'this is my murderer, avenge my death.'"

"September 12, 1912, 1:30 a. m., while writing a poem, some one tapped me on the shoulder and said: 'Let not a murderer take the presidential chair. Avenge my death.' I could plainly see Mr. McKinley's features. Before Almighty God, I swear this above writing is nothing but the truth."

Col. Roosevelt's wound was so slight that he left for Chicago at midnight, declaring that he would continue on his itinerary.

Women Want Ellis Executed
Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 12.—The Capital witnessed to-day the unusual spectacle of a delegation of women militantly arrayed on the side of the capital punishment. The delegation came from Burnside and called on Gov. McCreary to protest against commutation of the death sentence imposed on James Ellis, who shot and killed Squire Beatty and Constable Heath there about a year ago. Friends of Ellis have petitioned the Governor to commute his punishment to life imprisonment. The killing took place in an office and a score of shots were fired. When the shooting was over and the smoke cleared away Beatty and Heath were dead. The affair aroused the community and these women, unattended by male escorts, came to Frankfort and visited Gov. McCreary. In the party were Mrs. A. B. Maxwell, Mrs. J. A. Mann, Mrs. J. L. McKedine, Mrs. Abner G. Jones, Mrs. M. M. Uhl, Mrs. W. S. Phillips, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. J. W. Sloan, Mrs. M. W. Duncan, Mrs. E. B. Nash, and Miss Stella Lewis.

Progressives Last on Ballot
Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 10.—The Progressive party must take last place on the official ballot, being chronologically the youngest of the six, according to the decision of Secretary of State Creelins, announced today. The order of the ticket on the ballot will be Democratic, Republican, Socialist, Social, Prohibition and Progressive. The Progressive party emblem is the head of Roosevelt wearing a Rough Rider hat.

The law fixes the positions of Democratic and Republican tickets on the ballot by providing that the party casting the largest vote in the last preceding election shall be first on the ballot, and the party casting next to the largest vote shall be second. The positions of the others were left to the discretion of the Secretary of State.

Good Meeting.
Rev. A. J. Coker, of the Kingsville section, has just closed a meeting at Tateville, Pulaski county, which resulted in 36 additions to the Baptist church of that place. He baptized 33 of them at the close of the meeting.

Davis' Store.
Mrs. Margaret Leete, who has been visiting relatives and friends in this section left for her home in Davenport, Washington last week.

Misses Pearl and Rebecca Minks and Miss Mattie Owens, of Rockcastle, spent Saturday and Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. Amanda Doane Jesse James, who has been seriously ill for the last two months has begun to improve slowly, much to the delight of his many friends.

Buford Litteral and wife, of Pulaski county were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Adams Sunday.

Mose Pitman and Ollie Kidd are the champion corn cutters of this section, having cut 1,020 shocks by themselves, in corn that would average five bushels to the shock.

The presidential election seems to be rubber tired, as it is slipping upon the people so easily that there is nothing said about it, and no excitement whatever.

Allen Bowlin was convicted in Circuit Court, at Williamsburg, of shooting at Wesley Martin and given an indeterminate sentence of from 2 to 10 years in the penitentiary. Joe Bowlin, an uncle of Allen, was sentenced for life for killing a boy by the name of Mitch Christian.

"Turkey Tom" Ready for Business.

T. W. Gooch, the popular turkey buyer, of the McKinney section, will soon be out after the gobblers again this fall. He has been buying the luscious birds for the past 15 years, and is known to every housewife and turkey raiser in this section, and is familiarly called "Turkey Tom" by his host of friends. There is no better judge of turkeys anywhere than Mr. Gooch and his coming is always eagerly awaited about the time the frost gets on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock.

MRS. WM. MCKINNEY

Passes Away Suddenly at West End Home of Acute Indigestion

Mrs. William McKinney died at her home near McKinney Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock after only a few hours illness. She was seized with an attack of acute indigestion about 11 o'clock and being alone in the house at the time it was some time before her illness was known and physicians reached her too late to afford much relief. Deceased was born in Pulaski county 58 years ago and moved to this county when a young woman. In early life she united with the Presbyterian church and her life had always been that of a constant Christian. In addition to her husband she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mandy Tyree, of Raleigh, N. C., one brother, S. M. Owens, of Lincoln and three sisters, Mesdames Jos. Sallee, of Harrodsburg, J. M. Owens, of Somerset, and Mrs. Lelia Cook, of this city.

After funeral services conducted at the home of her brother by Rev. C. R. Blain, of Hustonsville, Sunday afternoon the remains were brought to Buffalo cemetery and laid to rest in the presence of a concourse of sorrowing friends and devoted relatives.

PROHIBITION SPARKS

There are a great many temperance people who want every one else to stop drinking but themselves. A good church member told me that Prohibition was right, that he was for it, and just as soon as there is a chance to win he would vote that way. How can we afford to make such a great sacrifice?

A preacher told me he voted the Prohibition ticket for 20 years. I asked him why he quit. He said because it did not seem to be making much progress. The Christian religion did not make much progress for several hundred years. Wouldn't he have made a "dandy" yes a "Jim dandy" martyr in the days of Paul and Silas?

A political boss once said "I would rather have one saloon actively at work for me than all the churches in town."

If it is right to license millionaire brewers and distillers to make intoxicating liquors, is it wrong to sell and drink it?

We do not license men to make counterfeit money and they have local option elections to decide whether it shall be passed in one county and not in another. It is pronounced an evil and is prohibition in both state and nation.

If those in Lincoln county who voted dry last February would vote for the Prohibition party candidate where would the three license party candidates be? But instead a large majority of them are going to cast a ballot so much like the brewers, distillers, saloon keepers and bootleggers that the Angels could not tell one from the other. Somebody is going to be fooled. It will not be A. W. CARPENTER (Advertisement)

FARMERS HAVE GREAT TIME HERE MONDAY

Politics, Mule Colts and Enormous Cattle Market Keep Big Crowd Very Busy.

Mule colts, cattle pens, and politics divided the attention of one of the biggest and best court day crowds seen in Stanford in a long while on Monday, October court day. Buyers of cattle were here from all over this part of the state. There were estimated to be about 1,500 at Nunneley's Stock Yards, which is so splendidly equipped to take care of the droves which are now coming to Stanford for sale each month. Most everything offered was quickly snapped up as there seems to be plenty of fall grass, and the feeders are looking for stuff to carry over. Prices ranged from 3 to 6 cents, according to the grade of stuff offered.

October court is always Mule Colt day, and it is well named. There were fully 300 of the young hybrids here, and nearly all of them sold. J. E. Kern, of Scranton, Pa., was here after any sort offered and bought about forty or fifty at from $40 to $100. Other buyers got nearly all they wanted. Older mules were also actively in demand, and in fact it was a busy day for all sorts and condition of farmers, and the merchants in town all did a rushing business. Details of all the sales that could possibly be secured will be given in the I. J.'s farm and stock news department in Friday's issue.

This being the last court day before the election, of course much interest centered in the presidential contest, and comment, and conjecture of all sorts was heard during the day. Judge Samuel M. Wilson, of Lexington, delivered a splendid address at the court house at half past one o'clock in the afternoon on behalf of the democratic ticket. He was heard by a well filled house, a most representative audience, which indicated the lively interest democrats are taking in this contest, for it is generally a mighty hard matter to get a good crowd to a speaking on an October court day. Congressman Harvey Helm introduced Judge Wilson, with a few well chosen remarks in the course of which he took occasion to express his gratitude to the loyal democrats of Lincoln county for the splendid majority they had given him in the primary contest last August.

Judge Wilson is one of the ablest and most competent speakers in the state and he made a grand argument for democracy, and pleased all who heard him. He warned democrats not to become indifferent and think that Woodrow Wilson is going to win anyway and will not need their votes. Everyone should go to the polls, and make sure that his majority is assured.

Plans are being made by County Chairman McCarty for speaking all over the county the last two weeks before the election, with a final wind-up in a big rally here the Saturday before election day.

Gen. Grant's Son for Wilson

New York, Oct. 11.—Jesse R. Grant was appointed a member of the finance committee of the New York Democratic state committee today. Mr. Grant, who is the son of President Grant, is one of the most enthusiastic supporters of Gov. Wilson. "I am going to do all in my power to bring around the election of Governor Wilson," says Mr. Grant. "I know of no one better equipped to grace the White House than Governor Wilson. His views on the tariff are appealing to the sensible business men of the country. I think he is going to receive the greatest number of republican votes ever given to a Democratic candidate for office. He is not only going to draw from Roosevelt's following (and this may sound like a remarkable statement,) but he is also going to decrease the ranks of the old time republicans until they will present on election day a mighty weak and battered line."

"If Governor Wilson is to lose any Democratic votes I have yet to hear of the fact. The independent voter is in favor of him and in view of all this I do not see the slightest chance for any of the other candidates to even give him a close race. "In this campaign I am convinced that Governor Wilson is going to gain ground every day rather than lose. My reason for stating this is that the people are becoming better acquainted with him and we are learning of the earnestness of the man and his high type of citizenship and his marvelous personality. I would not undertake to predict what will be the fate of the Republican party after this election, but I am convinced that it will never be swallowed up by the followers of Col. Roosevelt."

My blood became all right and after taking a few bottles, I was surprised at the effect it had on my kidneys. Women

From Forty-Five to Fifty Are Much Benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The "change of life" is a most critical period in a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

When her system is in a deranged condition, she may be predisposed to apoplexy, or congestion of some organ. At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

These symptoms are calls from nature for help. The nerves are crying out for assistance and the cry should be heeded in time.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is prepared to meet the needs of women's system at this trying period of her life. It invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system. It has carried many women safely through this crisis.

Mrs. Estella Gillispie

ONE CASE OUT OF MANY TO PROVE OUR CLAIMS.

St. Anne, Ill.—"I was passing through the change of life and I was a perfect wreck from female troubles. I had a displacement and bearing down pains, weak fainting spells, dizziness, then numb and cold feelings. Sometimes my feet and limbs were swollen. I was irregular and had so much backache and headache, was nervous, irritable and was despondent. Sometimes my appetite was good but more often it was not. My kidneys troubled me at times and I could walk only a short distance.

"I saw your advertisement in a paper and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I was helped from the first. At the end of two months the swelling had gone down, I was relieved of pain, and could walk with ease. I continued with the medicine and now I do almost all my housework. I know your medicine has saved me from the grave and I am willing for you to publish anything I write to you, for the good of others."—Mrs. ESTELLA GILLISPIE, R.F.D. No. 4, Box 34, St. Anne, Illinois.

"Are you in favor of making it unlawful for cattle generally to run at large on the public highways and unenclosed lands of Hustonville magisterial district No. 4, of Lincoln county?"

Notice of this election must be published twenty days beforehand in the Stanford Interior Journal, the only newspaper published in Lincoln county, which notice must appear in at least four issues of said newspaper.

The clerk of the Lincoln county court, the Sheriff of Lincoln, and the officers of the election in the several voting places embraced in Hustonville Magisterial district No. 4, of Lincoln county, Kentucky, are directed to do and perform all of the respective duties of them by the laws of this Commonwealth in advertising and conducting said election, in the preparation and preservation of the ballots and in canvassing and certifying the result of the vote, and it is directed that said election be held in all respects as required by law governing such elections and the general election law in so far as it applies to this character of election.
